

Information Visualization

It's trivia
time!

Lesson 8

Marilena Daquino
Assistant Professor

Department of Classical Philology
and Italian Studies

marilena.daquino2@unibo.it

01

You have 30 seconds

The big Question

Given the following big Question, which data-centric sub-questions would you choose to frame it?

“Examine the relation between artistic movements and countries”

An orange graphic consisting of two overlapping circles, with the number 02 centered in the intersection.

02

Correlation

Which of the following statements include a potential correlation?

Correlation is a measure that expresses whether two variables are linearly related

You have

30 seconds

03

Sleeping beauty

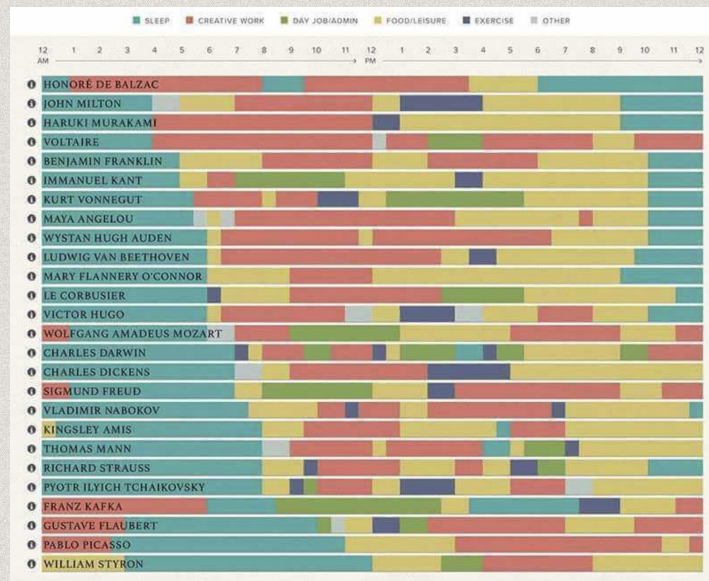

Who sleeps the most?

Write the full name in UPPERCASE

You have

1

minute

04

Who cares?

What is the most important audience of this wind map?

You have

30 seconds

05

Mix to maximise

How many techniques (charts)
can you see?

You have

1

minute

06

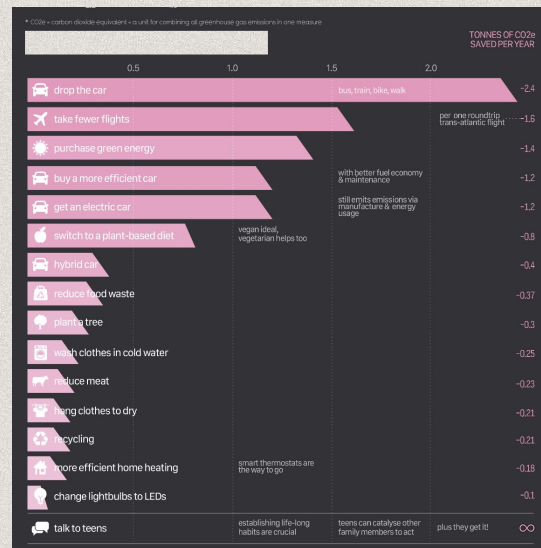

Make it memorable

Which title better fits this chart?

You have

30 seconds

07

So what?

List two audiences of this chart and what they can do with this information (call to action)

You have

4

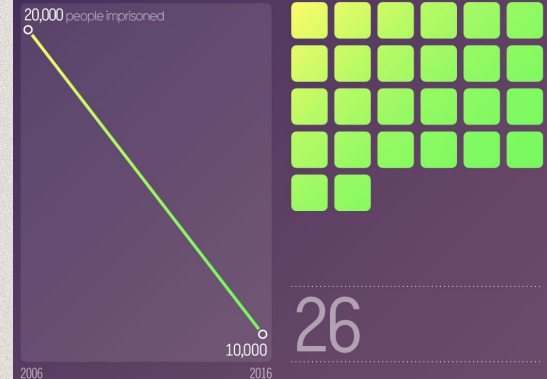

minutes

Dutch Prisons Are Closing

And being turned into housing for refugees

Incarceration rates are down

Prison closures 2009-2016

beautifulnews

sources: World Economic Forum, Fast Company

08

Pink charts matter.

Why is this chart misleading?

You have

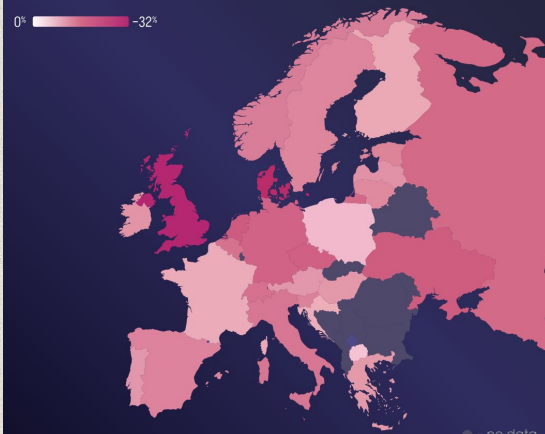

1

minute

European Teens Are Drinking Less Alcohol

% decrease in teenage alcohol consumption 2002 vs. 2014

0% — -32%

beautifulnews

● = no data
source: World Health Organization

09

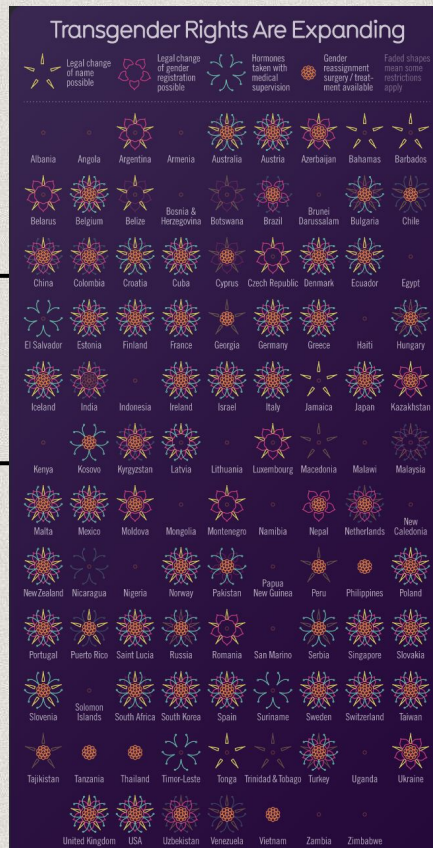

Elaborate

Analyse the chart and write down some insights that are not expressed in the title.

You have

5

minutes

Thanks!

Do you have any questions?

marilena.daguino2@unibo.it

https://github.com/marilenadaquino/information_visualization

CREDITS: This presentation template was created by Slidesgo, and includes icons by Flaticon, and infographics & images by Freepik